

Divine Mercy Retreat with Fr. Edward Wolanski, C.P.

When Jesus appeared to St. Faustina and showed her the image of Divine Mercy, He told her God’s greatest attribute is His mercy. One of the truths Jesus came into the world to tell us is that God the Father wants us to know Him and His deep love for us: “Whoever sees Me, Philip, sees the Father” Jn. 14: 7-11. God’s Mercy is His “Divine Love” for us. If we don’t understand and “accept” His Divine Love, we will never have the peace He wants us to have in this world.

Jesus also told St. Faustina that the Devotion to His Divine Mercy was in preparation for His second coming. This may or may not come in our lifetime, but whether it does or not, we need to help the whole world be ready, for He told us: “you know not the day nor the hour when the Son of Man will come.”

Come join us and learn what God’s Mercy can do in your life.
